Faculty Meeting
4:20 P.M., February 4, 1963, Bingham Hall

I. Introduction of New Faculty Members--Mr. Stone

Mr. Elwood D. Heiss, Education
Mr. Joseph F. Mulson, Physics
Mr. Filmer S.C. Northrop, Philosophy

II. The following is a request which was submitted to the Academic Standing Committee January 14, 1963. The Academic Standing Committee now requests Faculty approval:

"Green, Jerry - Request to be awarded both Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. Student will have completed majors in both Premedical and in Psychology, and will have earned 48 hours of credit above the 192 minimum, a total of 240 hours. Request was approved by the Committee and is to be referred to the Faculty for confirmation at the February meeting."

III. The Faculty-Administration Committee recommends that the statement approved by the Faculty at its last meeting with regard to Physical Education requirements be changed as follows:

"Students who have not fulfilled their six terms of Physical Education by the end of the winter term of their Junior year will be placed on regular probation or dismissed."

The last two words of this statement have been added to coincide with the present catalog statement that appears on page 44:

". . . Any student who fails to complete this requirement with satisfactory grades by the end of the third year will be liable for probation or dismissal."
